

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

—Dunn & Embury bought of Granville Lyon a 3-year-old mare for $150. Saturday Wakefield & Lee sold to some Lexington parties 6 mules for $750.

—The meeting at the Methodist church which has been in progress for three weeks, closed Sunday night with about 40 confessions and a good many additions to the church.

—Mrs. Archie Robinson's eulogical entertainment at the Clemens House last Friday night was highly enjoyed by a good crowd. Mrs. R. will probably go to Baltimore for a more thorough development of her talent.

—All the talk now is about commencement of the different schools. Miss Ritchie will give a musical entertainment in the city hall Monday night. The exercises of Caldwell College will be given in the Second Presbyterian church Tuesday night.

—The Boyle County Sunday-School Convention, which was held at Caldwell Church, was well attended, considering the inclement weather. If the weather had been pleasant a large crowd would have been in attendance. Most everything on the programme was filled and there were an abundance of good things to eat.

—If ever there was a subject worth threadbare by being discussed too much it was the weather last week. Such remarks as these were being made by everybody: "Did you ever see before such weather for this time of year?" "I'm about to freeze." "Have you any fire?" "Did you know it snowed to-day?" "An overcoat is comfortable to-day," etc.

—An election was held here Saturday for the purpose of electing trustees and a city attorney. The old board of trustees were re-elected. There were two candidates for city attorney—Speed S. Fry and Robert McKee. The race did not get hot till late in the evening, when the candidates were running close together. McKee's friends came to his assistance at the last and elected him by 11 votes. A good many were at the polls who wanted to vote when they were closed.

HUBBLE.—Henry Cox sold Bowen Pennington some corn for $1.75 per barrel. J. W. Bright was elected trustee of our school district. Richard Withers and Perry Hudson in the colored district. Primary election was held here Saturday for electing delegates to the general democratic convention held at Stanford, Monday, June 3. J. A. Hammonds was elected chairman, J. W. Swope, secretary. George P. Bright and L. G. Hubble were elected delegates to cast the precinct's vote at the convention. As the voters were not united on any one yet before the people, the delegates go uninstructed to cast their votes for the best man offering before the convention. Henry Cox bought one 2-year-old filly from R. L. Hubble for $100. The concert and supper here was a grand success, patronized by people from all localities in so much that there was a large assembly. There was good order observed in every respect. Everybody enjoyed the exercises and the sisters cleared a net sum of $50.

GUARDING THE MILLIONS.—Sub-Treasurer Roberts, of New York, who has the custody of $183,000,000 of the Government's money, has devised additional safeguards for guarding the treasure. Two men alone know the secret of the lock in the vault—one knowing one-half of the combination, the other the second half. These men will be known to their associates, but to avoid complication in the case of death, Mr. Roberts has given another two the combinations. The latter two are not known to their associates, and are not even known to each other. Further, to guard against mishaps, the two men known to have the combinations have written, in separate sealed envelopes, each his half of the secret, and Mr. Roberts put these envelopes in a big envelope, plastered it with sealing wax from end to end, and locked it in the safe. This is for his own benefit, in case the holders of one undivided half of the secret should be sick or die. Mr. Roberts would then break the great clump of wax on the big envelope and for the first time know the secret himself.

The courtesies of the Mammoth Cave have been extended the Kentucky Press Association, and the rate at the hotel reduced to $2 per day. For this the association is indebted to Col. G. A. Park, general passenger agent of the Owensboro & Nashville railroad, who has been untiring in his efforts to make everything connected with the meeting a complete success. When the press gang meet him they will all fall in love with him.—Owensboro Messenger.

A discussion as to the height of trees in the forests of Victoria, New South Wales, has elicited from Baron von Mueller, the government botanist, the statement that he saw one 525 feet tall.

You Cannot Afford

At this season of the year to be without a good reliable diarrhoea balsam in the house, as cramps, colic, diarrhoea and all inflammation of the stomach and bowels are exceedingly dangerous if not attended to at once. One bottle of Rogers' Diarrhoea Balsam will do more good in cases of the kind than any other medicine on earth. We guarantee it. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

CRAB ORCHARD

—Farmers all doing nothing; everything too wet.

—Mrs. Rhoda Higgins, her son, Samuel Higgins, and wife, are the guests of Messrs. J. C. and George King. Mrs. R. Gregg, of Louisville, is also a guest of the Springs. Mr. J. C. King has had the Springs grounds cleared up and everything is lovely.

—On account of the inclement weather the picnic at Dripping Springs Saturday, June 1, was but slimly attended. The weather alone did it, as all know Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Slaughter as the best entertainers of the country, and Dripping Springs a love of a spot for a picnic.

—Death has taken the flower from another home. Miss Lena Vanderpool passed away last Friday evening at the age of 14, lovely and lovable. The tender plant is transplanted in a higher and better home. She connected herself with the Christian church under the preaching of Elder R. H. Fife, of Lebanon, who officiated at the funeral, which was held at the Christian church Saturday afternoon. How soon has the young Christian been called to rest.

—Dr. Armendt arrived Saturday and is the guest of Mr. J. T. Chadwick. Mr. W. H. Pettus, the police assistant at the depot, spent Sunday at his home in Preachersville. Saturday, the day for election of school trustees, was more than ordinarily warm about the school-house, where at some places there were factions and strong opposition. Some of the school districts polled full votes. It is not often the case that there is such a contention for the office of school trustee, but it may encourage a better interest in schools and redound to the good of the community. Mr. J. F. Holdam was elected in this district, Charlie Redd, Jr., and W. F. Watson in District No. 7. One trustee resigned necessitating the election of two.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

—Mr. Smith Bryant, an aged citizen of Burnside, died suddenly last week.

—Mrs. Edward Million, who was a daughter of Joseph Kennedy, died in Garrard on the 29th.

—Capt. James A. Allen, of the "Orphans' Brigade," died at Paris from the effects of a wound received in the battle of Chickamauga.

—Mrs. Collier, wife of section boss David Collier, died at her home near Rowland Thursday night of consumption. Her remains were interred in Buffalo cemetery Friday.

AFTER a long life of 81 years Thomas Ball breathed his last Saturday morning at 11. He suffered from a liver and stomach affection and that with a general giving away of the system was the cause of his death. In his earlier years "Uncle Tommy," as he was generally called, was a Methodist preacher, but in his latter days he became skeptical and abandoned the pulpit and gave up many of the religious views that he had previously entertained and taught. He used to tell in his measured and peculiar tone that he preached a whole year for one church and all he got was one pair of socks that a sister knitted for him. This kind of treatment was enough to make a man skeptical, though he did not give that as a reason for his change of mind. He was a man of much intelligence and in all his dealings with his fellow man, he was to use the expression of a neighbor, as straight as a shingle and as honest as the days are long. He leaves an aged wife and five children, all of the latter grown, Thomas C. Ball, the "Rowland merchant," being the youngest. Uncle Tommy leaves an estate of about $15,000 after having divided a good sum with his children a few years ago. The remains were interred Sunday at Goshen church in the presence of a very large crowd of his neighbors and friends.

The Galt House, of Louisville, is said to have the best outside fire escapes in use at any hotel in this country. They are simply spiral iron stair-cases, strong, serviceable and safe, and at the same time quite ornamental, extending from the top story to the ground. The feeblest woman or the youngest child could easily get out of a burning building by means of such an "escape." Two of these stairways, built by the Snod Iron Works, of Louisville, have been purchased by the Galt House Company at a cost of $2,000.

A YEAR'S SNAKE RECORD.—Mr. J. W. Griffin, who lives about six miles from town, killed in the summer of 1887, 377 snakes and in the summer of 1888, 382. He has been bitten twice by large rattlesnakes and says he can cure the bite any time. Snakes are doing bad business to come in the way of this wholesale slayer. He is h—l on snakes.—Wilcox, Ga., Watchman.

The following remarkable instrument is the last will and testament of Dolly Jones, colored, of Jasper, Fla., and was signed September 27, 1888: "Farder I want you to take them 2 cows and my big Pot and 5 head of hogs and keep them as long as you live it is my Will for you to have them and do the best you can cos I must die and cant live you must mete me in heven when dun wid world."

Precinct Meetings.

The chairman of the county committee, T. D. Newland, presided over the meeting of the democracy in the two Stanford voting places Saturday afternoon and A. G. Huffman, Jr., acted as secretary. On motion the chairman appointed W. G. Welch, J. P. Bailey, J. W. Alcorn, W. E. Varnon, D. W. Vandever, W. L. Dawson and S. S. Myers a committee to select a list of delegates to the convention to be held June 3d to nominate a candidate for the legislature and they reported approving the call for a delegated convention and naming the following delegates: J. P. Bailey, D. W. Vandever, L. L. Dawson, W. G. Welch, J. W. Alcorn, R. L. Porter, A. K. Denny Joseph Swope, W. E. Varnon, James Beasley and A. C. Robinson. It was further resolved that the delegates be instructed to aid and unite with the other delegations in selecting a nominee, who will best unite the party and promote its success, and represent its time-honored principles. The report was adopted and the meeting adjourned.

Jordan Peter Chandler presided over the Crab Orchard meeting with a great deal of dignity and D. B. Edmiston attended to the clerical duties. The following gentlemen were appointed delegates and were sent uninstructed: J. E. Carson, Dr. J. F. Pettus, W. A. Carson, J. P. Chandler and J. R. Bailey.

J. Walnut Flat John G. Lynn presided at the meeting and R. C. Bywater and Hon. John S. Owsley were appointed delegates uninstructed.

Dr. Hawkins Brown was chairman of the Hustonville meeting and J. M. Cook secretary. An uninstructed delegation was sent as follows: L. B. Adams, John S. Goode, J. K. Helm, J. F. Drye, J. P. Riffe and J. B. McKinney.

Dr. Green Moore was chairman of the Turnersville meeting and Richard H. Givens secretary. J. W. Givens, Dr. Moore and J. M. Carter, Jr., were appointed delegates and instructed to vote for R. C. Warren for representative.

Mr. J. M. Carter presided over the Highland meeting and Henderson Baugh was named as delegate. See Hubble report for Stanford, No. 3.

Kingsville sent that sterling democrat, W. L. McCarty, to represent her.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—It is reported that L. F. Hubble is a candidate for the State Senate.

—The Baccalaureate sermon delivered by Rev. H. C. Morrison Sunday was a good one.

—A. D. Clark, U. S. marshal, is here to remain a few days looking into the illicit sale of liquor. Whisky is almost as plentiful as water, as easy to get and more generally sought after.

—R. Boyle, Wm. Shugars and W. B. Moss were elected trustees for common school district No. 24, last Saturday. On the same day, with three new candidates in the field, one of them a negro; the old board of city fathers were re-elected.

—The "Pronouncing Rec" by the rhetoric class at the College Saturday night was exceedingly interesting. The first prize was awarded to Miss Lillian Reaser, of Missouri; the second to Miss Adie Yeiser, of Danville. After the exercises, the class was treated to a superb supper by Mrs. Bourne, the teacher.

—The villainous weather operated very much against Bro. Barnes' second lecture, as it did against the first, there being only about 125 present the last night. The great preacher said he regarded the attendance, under the circumstances, good, and was pleased with the receipts. The lecture excelled any ever delivered here.

In the next war armies will have to be employed chiefly in keeping out of the range of each other's guns or they will be annihilated. In addition to the repeating rifles, Gatling guns, dynamite guns and the like, the government has been experimenting with a six-pounder that fires 19 times a minute, or 60 times in four minutes and 20 seconds. There will be no charge like that of Pickett's men at Gettysburg against such weapons.—Philadelphia Ledger.

"This is the seventh time within two hours that you have asked me when the train left for Lansing," replied the policeman at the Third-street depot to a young man with a satchel.

"Is it against the law?"

"No, but it's rather annoying to me."

"Well, if it annoys you, how do you think I must feel about it? The fare is $2.60, and I've got to think of some way to get out there on $1.50."

Mother (severely).—"That dress is altogether too low, Lillie. I am surprised at you."

Lillie (turning very red).—"I hope you don't think it is immodest, mamma. Helen Alstrup's are even much lower."

Mother.—"But it is her fifth season and your second. If you exhaust your resources so soon what are you going to do next year?"—New York Mercury.

W. P. WALTON.

The most appalling disaster that ever started this country occurred Friday afternoon at Johnstown, Pa., when a huge reservoir burst from the weight of the heavy rains, flooding the town to the depth of 38 feet, sweeping away hundreds of houses and drowning people there and in the towns below on the Conemaugh River to the number variously estimated at 800 to 10,000. Five or six towns were nearly annihilated and their inhabitants crushed, drowned or burned to death. The houses drifted against a viaduct and lodging, caught fire and hundreds of people in them and seeking their tops for safety, were burned in full sight of those on the bank, who were powerless to help them. Two passenger trains were swept from the track and their entire loads of human freight perished. The river banks for miles are strewn with dead bodies and the debris of houses and factories and 50,000 people are homeless. The loss to property is estimated at $20,000,000 and great suffering and starvation are being experienced by the unfortunate people, who call loudly for aid. The desolation is horrible to contemplate and the catastrophe has made the whole world shudder.

Another man has put away a crown, John Barret, whom the republicans nominated for State treasurer, thinks, or at least he professes to, that the great and rapid growth of his party in the State in the past few years, together with the mismanagement of State affairs by the democratic party, foreshadows the success of the republican candidate in the coming contest and as the acceptance of the office would involve the abandonment of his profession and devolve upon him grave and responsible duties he is poorly qualified to fill, he declines as a candidate for an office which, in the contingency of a favorable result, would seriously interfere with the pursuit of his profession. It was sensible in Johnnie to decline the empty honor, but might not have resorted to such stuff in making excuses. He does not nor cannot believe that his party could in any contingency win the race before us, or republican candidates for the office would be as thick as office-seekers are in Washington. It is too thin entirely, Johnnie.

Is forcing the president to withdraw the nomination of Hon. Beverly Tucker as one of the commissioners to Hayti, Gen. H. V. Boynton, the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette, shows that he is a "bigger man" than Secretary Blaine, who suggested the appointment. The general has a spite against Blaine and is proud that he has been able to give it to him in the neck. The president's action in the matter is most contemptible and shows how easily he can be bluffed and bullied into an ungracious act.

The Cincinnati Commercial has a column of entertaining talk by Gov. McCreary, who is in Washington looking after the interests of his constituents. The governor is very popular with the "boys" as the kind words from the republican reporters show. Before bidding "The Row" good-bye our Congressman said it might be worth while to mention that he had had two democrats appointed from his district—one a cadet at Annapolis and another at West Point, which was something to get out of a republican administration.

The Alleghany Mountain region of West Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania has just experienced the heaviest flood since the deluge. The whole face of the country was a sheet of water and great damage to railroad and other property was done. The Pennsylvania road had 41 engines to be thrown into the river by the giving away of an embankment, besides sustaining great loss of track and bridges. The B. & O. and the C. & O. both also suffered seriously.

The Barbourville News, owned by Mr. A. M. Decker and edited with much credit by T. Cravens, has been sold to George H. Dains and Judge C. W. Metcalf, who will try their hands at running a democratic paper in a republican stronghold. We wish them success in turning the people from the error of their way and hope that while they are doing so lucre will fill their pockets.

OLIVER W. ROOT, of Covington, is said to have for the flesh pots of empty honors and has expressed his willingness to accept the republican nomination for treasurer, so proudly put away by Jack Barret. The committee, upon whom will now devolve the duty of selecting a candidate, will in all probability gratify his desire. It will then be Root bog or die with all the chances in favor of death.

It is stated that Col John Young Brown, one of the most respectable if not the most respectable republican in Kentucky, will shortly announce his candidacy for governor. The colonel has represented his district several times in Congress and is a man of much ability. He is also said to be Harrison's choice for government pie dispenser in Kentucky.

The precinct delegations of representative and true democrats met in caucus here yesterday morning and after a full and fair discussion decided to recommend R. C. Warren to the convention as their choice for representative. They did so and their action was promptly endorsed by the large body which had gathered in the court-house. Mr. Warren accepted the nomination and defined his position on the prohibition law, which is the true democratic position; but of that and of the worthy nominee we will have much and more to say in the future. The democracy is going to elect him and Lincoln will once more have a representative that will do her honor.

We acknowledge the justice of the Harrodsburg Democrat's rebuke in the article subjoined and beg Bro. Spottswood's pardon: "We would like to know on what grounds Editor Walton denominated Wm. O. Bradley 'the little Kentucky rooster.'" No one objects to a particular friend calling Bradley a rooster, but when it comes to calling him the Kentucky rooster all our tail feathers go up in indignant protest. A Kentucky bird should be a fowl of rare plumage, with clean cut legs and a trim body, a clarion voice and a proud carriage. The doughty Colonel smacks too much of the dunghill breed to be justly called the Kentucky rooster.

The Glasgow Times, with its usual truth and pointedness, says of National Committeeman McHenry: "Only his relationship to the editor of the Courier-Journal placed him in and keeps him in, a position he by no means fills. His mention for the chairmanship of the committee would be laughable were it not too serious a matter."

The Chairman of the State Central Democratic Committee, the Executive Committee and the State League of Clubs are to meet at the Phoenix Hotel, Lexington, at noon to-day, to prepare for the coming campaign. Mr. R. C. Warren is Kentucky's representative in the National League and he has been invited to be present.

Our Lancaster correspondent says that L. F. Hubble is a candidate for State Senator and we learn that Mr. R. H. Tomlinson, of the same city, is also a candidate. This gives us a three-cornered fight, Judge Breckenridge already being a candidate.

Mr. J. L. Bruce has announced his candidacy for the legislature in Boyle. This is about equivalent to an election and assures the county the best representative it has had for years.

HON. R. C. WARREN

Is Unanimously Nominated to Represent Lincoln County in the Next Legislature.

When County Chairman T. D. Newland called the convention to order at 1 o'clock yesterday, the Court-House was filled with people. J. W. Alcorn nominated Dr. Green Moore in a very complimentary speech for chairman and he was chosen. W. P. Walton was then on motion of J. M. Cook made secretary and a call of precincts for nomination was made.

When Stanford No. 2 was called, Mr. W. F. McClary arose and in a manly speech, which endeared him further to his party, nominated Mr. R. C. Warren as the democratic candidate for representative. The other precincts seconded the nomination, and then on motion of Squire L. B. Adams it was made unanimous. On motion the chair appointed W. E. Varron, L. B. Adams and W. F. McClary a committee to wait on Mr. Warren and inform him of the action of the convention. During their absence D. W. Vandever in response to calls, made a stirring speech calling on democrats to stand by their principles and not be led off on issues of local self-government.

Mr. Warren was introduced at this point and addressing the body made a short speech of thanks accepting the nomination. Calls for McClary were answered by that gentleman in further endorsing Mr. Warren and took occasion to refer to and define his position on the question of a re-submission of the prohibition law to the voters of the county. This caused Mr. Warren to define his views on the subject, which were that the people have the right, if they want to do so, to have the law amended so that a vote may be taken at some future time and he would have it so amended if it was desired, but that under no circumstances would he repeal it outright. This he claimed was democratic and just and upon this issue he was not afraid to go before an intelligent people. At the conclusion of his speech, which was frequently applauded, the convention adjourned.

She promptly refused to let them in, when they tried all of the doors and windows, but failed to effect an entrance. After uttering a few oaths of vengeance, they left, promising a return visit.

A VERY pleasant party was given Miss Dovie Talbott by her uncle, Mr. John O. Neal, on Friday. A large number of the young people were present and a delightful evening was spent.

THE Female College commencement exercises will occur Thursday night at the Opera House, when the essays of the graduates will be sandwiched with music provided by Miss Dollie William's class.

BRACKEN EDWARDS denies positively, and his word is substantiated, that he painted a negro woman white and took her to the Rowland church. Another fellow there did paint a woman, but she was not taken to church. Mr. Edwards is said to have conducted himself well since he came here and stands well.

ANA, JUDGE VARNON!—"Who is the Lincoln county judge?" After some deliberation the answer, in concert, came: "We don't know his name, but he is the handsomest, as well as the youngest, widower in the county." Prof. Tompkins acquiesced and discharged the class.—Hustontville cor. Danville Advocate.

NINE young ladies, including Miss Annie Dauth, of Ottenheim, in this county, took the white veil at the Ursuline Convent, Louisville, Friday. The ceremony is an elaborate and beautiful one. The novitiate is dressed like a bride in white, and as the questions are answered by each a black habit is drawn over her attire and she is then a nun.

In the county court yesterday the will of Mrs. Ben Helm was probated. Her husband is appointed executor without bond. It bequeaths her Montana property to her two children and gives the rest of her real and personal property in Kentucky and Florida to her husband. Mr. Sam F. Cowan left no will and J. N. Meneffee qualified as administrator.

OUR business manager sent a pair of unmentionables to his seamstress to fix a few days ago, but the thick-headed coon who took them mistook the house and handed the bundle to the young lady who came to the door, with the remark that he wanted them by that afternoon. The young lady with her visitor opened the package with a light heart, thinking of a treat of some kind, when they were horrified to find a pair of—The matter was subsequently satisfactorily explained, but the blushes which suffused the b. m.'s face when he found out the situation continue to suffuse, and will account for the unusual redness.

THE concert at Hubble Friday night, given by Mrs. Priestley's music class, proved even more creditable than the performance here. The participants had gotten more used to the stage and exhibited little or no "stage fright," which even the professionals occasionally have to contend with. The programme was unchanged, save that a solo by Will Severance and a couple of cornet solos by Joe F. Waters were added. All of the members acquitted themselves in a way deserving of praise and the general verdict of the large audience was that the performance was good from start to finish. A large number were present from Stanford, which was further proof that they had enjoyed the performance here and wanted to see more of it. The supper served by the ladies consisted of substantial, fruits and ices and was an excellent one, thoroughly evincing that the ladies of that vicinity are cuisinists in the highest sense of the word.

BEAT 'EM AGAIN.—Although it rained and the weather was as cold as the dead of winter, the Danvilles were on hand Friday afternoon and played the first game of the new series. Not satisfied with being beaten twice by the INTERIOR JOURNALERS they challenged them again and the result of the first game was as usual—a sore defeat. The score was 23 to 17 in favor of the I. J.s., the large number of scores showing that there was poor playing all round. The fault was not with the players, however, but with the wet ball, which nobody could hold. Rice and Wilson constituted the battery for our nine and considering the circumstances did good work. At the seventh inning Severance rested Rice by pitching one inning and it was then that the Danvilles jumped from 7 to 17. Rice then took his position in the box, caught a fly and struck two men out, thus ending the game, with the I. J.s. once more victorious. Tinsley, of the Danvilles, who impressed our boys at Danville as a holy terror in the box, was fearfully batted here, when Hann was given a chance to display his ability, and was also "knocked." The next game will be played at Danville Friday next.

WHILE W. W. White was coming to town yesterday he was attacked by a large yellow dog. He attempted to ride away from him when the dog followed. He then fired and put a bullet through his heart.

A MEETING of the tax-payers and patrons of school district No. 19 will be held at S. M. Carrier's store at 2 P. M., June 8, to consider plans for new school-house. A full meeting is desired. L. H. Pryor, Chairman.

MR. SLAUGHTER was prepared to furnish a dinner for 500 persons last Saturday at Dripping Springs, but on account of the cold disagreeable weather the picnic was postponed until the following Saturday, June 8th, when the same programme will be presented—dinner, ball, &c.

CANE.—Mr. A. M. Feland brought us in a bunch of cane that had gone to head, which very much resembles oats in appearance. Speaking of cane heading John Bright asserts that it only does so once in seven years, while old men say they never saw it before. Who knows the habit of Kentucky's noted product?

THE habeas corpus case of Gen. Sowers for bail did not come up before Judge Varnon yesterday, having been postponed for some reason. In the similar case of the Howards and Fee, charged with murder in Harlan county, the papers were not regular and no action was taken. Judge Varnon doubts whether he has jurisdiction even if the papers were in legal shape.

SINGULAR.—Mr. William Perkins tells us that William Teeters, who lives in his neighborhood, had a sow to give birth to 8 pigs or dogs as you choose to call them. They were perfect dogs save their heads which were those of a hog. They were curiosities and Mr. Teeters might have made a fortune had he not let his anger get the best of him when he found out they were not pigs, and killed them.

COLD.—Friday and Saturday were the coldest May and June days that have been experienced in this latitude for many a day. The mercury went down to 40 and but for the clouds a heavy frost would have ruined the crops. Fires were in demand and people shivered around in winter wraps and red noses as if they had been transferred suddenly to an Arctic region. Heavy rains fell Thursday and Friday, and yesterday another cold and not needed one was falling.

FOREPAUGH'S 25 cent circus, one of the best shows of the kind for the money, is still with us. The heavy rains have greatly interfered with the business, which has been light. They gave two performances yesterday and will go to Junction City to-day. The whole party is well behaved and have favorably impressed our people. Mr. W. R. Forepaugh, the manager, is as clever a fellow as is in the business. We commend the show as one extra good for the money.

FIRE.—At 8:30 yesterday morning fire broke out in a house owned by Mrs. George D. Wearen and occupied by Maria Brown and Ambrose Merritt, located on the creek back of the Presbyterian church. After it was half burned somebody thought of the force pump and hose that belong to the town and they were brought into good service in preventing a spread of the flames. Most of the furniture was saved and the loss is principally on Mrs. Wearen who valued the house at about $200. No insurance.

FROM LINCOLN.—J. M. Shackelford, just appointed U. S. judge in Oklahoma, is a native of this county, having first seen the light on the old Bennett Cloyd farm some 62 years ago. Many of the older citizens remember him as a rather bright boy of gentlemanly mein and prepossessing address. His father moved from this county when the judge was just entering manhood, but a number of men in this section served in the regiment that he commanded during the war. Those who know say that the appointment is a very meritorious one.

INDICTED FOR LIBEL.—We learn that by instructions from Judge Boyd the grand jury of Laurel indicted the editor of this paper for criminal libel, in publishing an article from a gentleman there in whom he had confidence, that the court had suppressed indictments against republicans for election frauds and allowed only those against democrats to stand. We did this in good faith and without malice and are willing to face any jury of gentlemen on the question. Judge Boyd seems disposed to throttle the press and he may be able to do so in his district, but we will say to him here and always that he cannot frighten this paper. We have neither time nor space at the late hour that we received the intelligence to say more at present, but Judge Boyd may expect to hear from us early and often on the subject.

—As the flood receded from Johnstown an unprecedented scene of desolation, wreckage and death was presented. The city is completely gone, no less than 1,500 buildings having been entirely swept away. The dead are everywhere, and the most conservative place the loss of life at Johnstown alone at 5,000 people, while the fatalities at other points will when heard from swell the list to an extent that cannot even be approximated. To add to the horror much of the debris is on fire, and the dead are being despoiled of personal effects.

Mass Conventions Called in the 18th Senatorial District.

THE Senatorial Committee of the 18th district met here yesterday, Lincoln and Boyle being represented by their committeemen and Garrard and Casey by proxies, and after discussion it was RESOLVED, 1. That a democratic convention be called to select a candidate for the State Senate from this district.

2. That the democrats of the four counties composing the district meet in mass convention at the court-houses of their respective counties on the 29th of June and vote for a candidate for the nomination for said position, and the candidate receiving the largest number of votes shall be entitled to the whole vote of that county, and the chairman of the committee of each county will meet at the Court House in Stanford on July 1, 1889, to cast the vote of their respective counties, in accordance with the certificate of the secretary of said meeting, showing who received a majority of said votes and the chairman of this district will declare the man receiving a majority of the votes the nominee of the party for State Senator of the 18th district.

3. Each county will be entitled to one vote for each 100 democratic votes and a vote for each fractional part thereof over 50 cast for Cleveland for president.

4. That none but democratic voters will be permitted to take part in the mass meetings to be held under this order and all voters taking part in said meeting will obligate themselves to support the nominee.

The mass meetings are to be held at 2 o'clock in each county.

T. D. NEWLAND, Ch'n.

THE EQUITY LIFE ASSOCIATION of VA.—After examining the condition, standing and plans of the Equity Life of Va. we take pleasure in recommending the company as a safe, good and reliable one. The name of its president, Governor Lee, and other officers who stand high as gentlemen of honor and integrity, should be a sufficient guarantee for solvency, honesty and fair dealing.

The following is from R. L. Barnett, of the Harrodsburg Democrat, under head of "A Card," in that paper: "I am pleased to say that I am personally acquainted with several of the officers of the Equity Life Association, of Staunton, Virginia, and that their connection with it is sufficient guarantee of the company's reliability and excellence. R. L. BARNETT. This Company is represented by Dr. P. W. Logan, Gen. Man. for Kentucky."

HOLSTEIN-FRIESIAN BULL,

Captain Aaggie Wayne!

No. 9718 H. F. H. B.

Will be permitted to serve a few cows at my stable on Lancaster pike in suburbs of Stanford, at Three Dollars by the season, and a fee of 50 cents to Milker, the groom, payable in advance, with the privilege of breeding till the cow proves to be with calf.

This young bull is not only of the very best breeding, but is individually a very superior animal in every particular. He will not fail to produce milk cows of the highest excellence. Both his pedigree and his individuality guarantee this.

The Holstein-Friesian cattle have for several seasons taken the lead in the blooded cattle market by commanding under the hammer the highest prices, and having the capacity to produce more milk and butter than any other breed and as much and as good beef, they will not fail to retain their lead in popular favor. W. H. MILLER.

I have for sale two fine registered Holstein-Friesian bull calves and one grade heifer calf.
